Cl. 170.—Royal Warrant.—Stoppages from Militiamen fraudulently enlisting into the Regular Forces.*VICTORIA R.

Whereas we deem it expedient to amend the Regulations relating to the stoppages to be required of Militiamen, or men of the Militia Reserve, who enlist into our Regular Forces without previously obtaining a release from their Militia engagement;

Our will and pleasure is that men who are discovered, subsequently to the date of this our Warrant, to have enlisted into our Regular Forces without previously obtaining a release from their Militia engagement, shall, if so ordered by the Court-Martial by which they are tried, or, if not so tried, by the authority dispensing with their trial, pay 1*l.* as compensation for the expenses of their enrolment into the Militia, together with a further sum of 1*l.* if enlisted in the Militia Reserve. Such stoppage shall be in lieu of the stoppage of 1*l.* a day for 18 months, and the additional stoppage of 1*l.* a day for 240 days, hitherto required.

Given at our Court at Balmoral this 19th day of June 1860, in the 43rd year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
HUGH C. E. CHILDERS.

Cl. 171.—Regulations for the Militia, 1880.

1. Her Majesty has been pleased to grant a Warrant, under Her Royal Sign Manual, promulgating Revised Regulations relating to the pay, promotion, non-effective pay, allowances, and other matters affecting the Militia.

2. Copies of the Warrant and the Regulations thereunto attached will shortly be issued to Officers and others concerned.

3. Any alterations which may become necessary hereafter in the Regulations will be notified in Army Circulars, and the Regulations, together with the Circulars subsequently issued, will be kept carefully noted up by Officers concerned. All paragraphs which may be cancelled will be ruled out in ink, and the authority for the cancelling noted in the margin.

4. These regulations supersede all Circulars and Orders issued up to this date, so far as they relate to or affect the Militia, with the exception of the Instructions issued in regard to the examination of Officers for Commissions in the Army, Clause 149, Army Circulars, 1860, and, during the training of 1880, such portions of the Militia Orders as have not been included in the revised Regulations.

827(a). When a Volunteer Corps, either administrative or consolidated, forms a regimental camp, an additional camp allowance of 2*s.* 6*d.*, to cover travelling expenses, will be granted for each Officer, non-commissioned officer, and private belonging to the headquarters who attends the camp either for a period of not less than three days, or for the performance of Battalion drill, or annual gun practice, or for the annual inspection, if the place at which the regimental camp is held is more than five miles from the headquarters of the Corps. If, however, the Officer, non-commissioned officer, or private, shall belong to a detached troop or company, or attached Corps, having its authorised drill station at a greater distance than five miles from the headquarters of the Corps, the rate of the additional camp allowance to cover travelling expenses shall in their case be 5*s.* instead of 2*s.* 6*d.*

827(b). When a Corps of Rifle Volunteers forms a regimental camp for drill and instruction, the battalion drills requisite for "efficiency," under the terms of Her Majesty's Order in Council, will take place at the camp. This regulation does not apply to the brigade drill held under paragraph 746.

827(c). When the camp shall last for not less than four clear days, exclusive of the days of joining and quitting the camp, any member of the Battalion or Corps who is unable to attend the camp, will, with the approval of the Commanding Officer, be permitted to do the usual battalion drills elsewhere, provided no travelling allowance is charged for them.

Copy of Treasury Minute, dated 11th March 1850.

"My Lords have under their consideration the large amount paid annually for Government Advertisements, and the number of newspapers in which those advertisements are published.

"My Lords are well aware of the importance of giving every needful publicity to advertisements inviting tenders for Public Service, in order to secure as large an amount of competition as possible, but it appears to their Lordships that the cost of their publication might be considerably reduced without injury to the Public Service, if the Heads of the several Departments were to give directions for confining the advertisements to a description of the general nature of the proposed tender and of the articles required, omitting all unnecessary detail, and with the insertion of a note referring persons to the Department for all further particulars, a practice which my Lords observe has been adopted in the Department of the Secretary of State for India.

"My Lords request, therefore, that the matter may receive the attention of the Departments of Government in which numerous and extensive tenders are necessarily invited by public advertisements, with a view to a saving of expense to the Public by the adopting shorter forms of advertisements in future."

G.O. 80.—Recruiting.

(Specially issued, 9th June 1880.)

1. With reference to Clause 150, Army Circulars of 1880, the duty of taking the height and chest measurement of recruits, and also that of recording their correct ages, now rests with the Medical Officer. Approving Field Officers and Recruiting Officers are therefore relieved from all responsibility on those heads.

2. The attention of Commanding Officers is drawn to the definition of approving Medical Officers and Civilian Medical Practitioners, as given in the above quoted clause.

3. Until a recruit has been approved by the Commanding Officer, either of a sub-district, or corps, and by an approving Medical Officer, he is not to be considered as having been finally approved for the service.

4. When the recruit is approved, the second medical certificate on the attestation paper, must invariably be signed by an approving Medical Officer; but, should there be no such officer at the head-quarters of a sub-district, the final inspection of the recruit will be made by the surgeon of the corps to which he is sent. He will not under any circumstances be re-examined by a Civilian Medical Practitioner.

5. In the event of the Commanding Officer of a sub-district or corps having any decided objection to a recruit, he will forward a report to the Adjutant-General on Army Form B 204 (late W. O. Form 584), accompanied by the man's attestation, and request instructions as to his disposal.

6. Paragraphs 12 and 22 of the Recruiting Instructions issued with G.O. 32 of 1873, G.O. 15 of 1878, paragraphs II. and III. of G.O. 10 of 1879, and G.O. 51 of 1879, having been incorporated in the revised paragraphs of the Army Medical Regulations, should not be quoted in future.

7. Paragraph 13 of the Recruiting Instructions issued with G.O. 32 of 1873, G.O. 37 of 1874, paragraphs I., IV., and V. of G.O. 10 of 1879, are hereby cancelled.

G.O. 81.—Military Veterinary School, Aldershot.(Specially issued, 17th June 1880.)*

The establishment at Aldershot of a Military Veterinary School having been approved, the following regulations regarding it are published for general information:—

I. The School will be divided into 3 classes, as follows:—

- (a.) An officers' class for officers of the mounted branches and others, for instruction in the proper care and management of horses and other animals, under the varying conditions of military service, including a knowledge of their conformation, forage, dieting, shoeing, of stable management in barracks, camp, and on board ship. Instruction will also be given in the general principles of sanitation, and the ordinary diseases and lamenesses of horses, and how to prevent and treat sore backs.
- (b.) A farriers' class for Farrier-Majors, Farrier-Servants, Shoeing Smiths and others, for instruction as Veterinary Assistants, in the care and management of sick horses, and other animals employed in the military service, and in the treatment of minor accidents and lamenesses, so as to render these Non-Commissioned Officers and men useful in cases of emergency, and when with detached parties. Instruction will also be given in the principles of shoeing.
- (c.) A Veterinary Surgeons' class for Veterinary Surgeons on probation, and others, for instruction in military surgery, and the routine of military veterinary duties, the sanitation of barracks and camps, the diseases and accidents peculiar to animals employed for military purposes, both at home and abroad, and in such practical knowledge as will render them fit for independent veterinary charge.

II. The school will be under a committee of management, consisting of the General Officer in Command at Aldershot as President; the Inspecting-General of Cavalry for Great Britain; the Inspector-General, Royal Artillery; the Assistant Adjutant-General, the Assistant Quarter-Master-General, and the Inspecting Veterinary Surgeon, Aldershot.

III. The committee will, from time to time, submit to the Adjutant-General for approval such rules and regulations as it may think desirable to further the object in view.

IV. The committee will also submit to the Adjutant-General of the army an annual report on the working of the school and its results. The committee will arrange the time and duration of the courses of instruction.

V. The attendance of a limited number of officers from out-stations will be permitted. The names of such officers who are desirous of attending are to be submitted by their Commanding Officer to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

VI. A Veterinary Surgeon will be specially selected as instructor, and a military clerk will be attached to the school.

VII. The instructor will, in addition, perform the duties of Veterinary Surgeon to the General Staff at Aldershot, assisted by the probationary Veterinary Surgeons attending the school. G.O. 84.—Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879.

With reference to G.O. 54 of 1880, the following form of charge will be used in future cases of fraudulent enlistment, instead of the form given in para. 1 of G.O. 108 of 1879, viz. :—

Fraudulent enlistment in having at _____, on the _____, while belonging to the _____ Brigade (Regiment or Corps) of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, enlisted in Her Majesty's Regular Forces, thereby obtaining a free kit, value _____.

G.O. 85.—Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879.

1. The proceedings of several Courts-Martial having recently been pronounced illegal owing to the charges being "for conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline," under the 40th Section of the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, while the offences alleged were specifically provided for under other sections, the attention of Commanding Officers is called to the latter part of Section 40, and they are warned not to use the words "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline" in charging a soldier "for any offence for which special provision is made in any other part of this Act."

11. In para. III. of G.O. 26 of 1880, the words "that the offender has been guilty of" should be omitted, and inverted commas inserted before the word "conduct."

G.O. 86.—Books.

The following alterations are to be made in all copies of the "Regulations and Instructions for Encampments, 1877," now in possession :—

For lines 3 to 7, page 17, substitute the following :—

"The Commissariat and Ordnance Store Officers' positions at divisional or brigade headquarters are indicated by flags—blue, with white centre, for Commissariat and Transport Department; blue, with red centre, for Ordnance Store Department.

"At night the above points are indicated by two red lamps for Generals of Division, one red lamp for Brigadiers, one green lamp for Commissariat and Transport Department, one yellow lamp for Ordnance Store Department."

Plate VIII., substitute "meat store" for "butchery."

G.O. 87.—Desertion, or Absence without leave, and Offences against Enlistment.

G.O. 78 of 1879 is hereby cancelled, and the following will be substituted for Section 6, paras. 72 and 73, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1878" :—

72. With a view to the detection and apprehension of deserters, and absentees without leave, commanding officers at home and abroad are to transmit to the Editor of the "Police Gazette," Police Court, Bow Street, London, W.C., a descriptive report of every deserter or absentee without leave, on Army Form B 124 (date W.O. Form 88), giving particulars of the man's height, age, &c. at the time of his absenting himself, and the fullest information possible, in order that the same may be inserted in the "Police Gazette," which paper is sent to the headquarters of every regiment and brigade depot at home, free of expense. In those instances which present good ground for supposing men to have deserted, these reports should be rendered within 24 hours after their absence has been discovered, but in no case should they be delayed beyond five days. Up to 21 days the man should not be described as a deserter, unless there are grounds for believing that he has deserted. After 21 days, all absentees without leave should be considered as deserters. In the case of recruits who absent themselves en route to join, a note should be made of this fact on the return. The returns transmitted to the Editor of the "Police Gazette" should be franked by the commanding or other officer, in the left-hand corner of the address, in order that they may be delivered free.

Duplicates of the return are also to be transmitted to the police of the locality in which the offence has taken place, and to the parish to which the deserter or absentee without leave belongs; and in order further to facilitate the apprehension of deserters and absentees without leave, similar reports should be sent to the place which it is supposed the man may have proceeded to, and elsewhere, as commanding officers may consider it desirable.

73. When a soldier, while serving, either confesses or is discovered to have entered the service while belonging to or after having been discharged from Her Majesty's Service, under the circumstances herein-after described, the officer commanding the corps in which the soldier is serving will, after recording in Army Form B 123* the prescribed particulars of his present service, forward it (with a view to the details of his former service and the names of witnesses as to identification being obtained) in the following manner:—

If the former service was—

- (a.) In the Cavalry or Infantry, to the officer commanding the corps or dépôt.
- (b.) In the Royal Artillery or Royal Engineers, to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Royal Artillery or Royal Engineers, at Head-Quarters.
- (c.) In any other portion of Her Majesty's Regular Forces (Her Majesty's Indian Forces excepted), in the Royal Navy, Royal Naval Reserve, and Royal Marines, to the Adjutant-General of the Forces, who will obtain the necessary information and issue such instructions as may be required.
- (d.) In Her Majesty's Indian Forces, to the proper authority in India.
- (e.) If the soldier had passed into the Army Reserve, to the pension pay-district; or, if that is unknown, as in (a), (b), or (c).

73a. An officer receiving Army Form B 123, after filling in the required particulars and adding any observations he may desire to make, will return the form to the officer from whom he received it.

73b. The officer commanding the soldier's present corps, on completion of the necessary evidence, will (except in the case of a militiaman) submit the case through the usual channel for decision as follows:—

(1.) If at the time of his last enlistment the soldier belonged to the Regular Forces—

At Home stations: to the Adjutant-General of the Forces, unless both corps concerned belong to the Cavalry or Infantry, and are serving in the same command, in which circumstances the General Officer commanding will dispose of the case under his own orders, deciding in which corps the man shall serve.

At Foreign stations: when both corps or portions of both corps are serving in the same command, the General Officer commanding will decide as to the corps in which the soldier is to serve. If no portion of the former corps is serving at the station, the soldier will be retained in his present corps.

(2.) If the soldier belonged to the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, or Royal Naval Reserve, he will, in all cases, be retained for service in his present corps, unless orders to the contrary have been received from the Adjutant-General of the Forces.

(3.) If the soldier belonged to the Army Reserve—

At Home stations: the General Officer commanding will deal with the case under Section 33 and not under Section 13 of the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879. In exceptional cases, application may, however, be made to Head-Quarters for authority to dispose of the offence without trial. Whether punished or not, the man will be relegated to the Army Reserve, unless in cases where the service in the Reserve has expired, or nearly expired, when reference will be made to Head-Quarters, with a view to its being decided if the man shall be held to Army service on his last attestation.

At Foreign stations: after disposing of the case on its merits, the General Officer commanding will, in all cases, direct the man to be retained for service in his present corps on his last attestation.

In all cases, both at home and abroad, a report of the disposal of the case, giving full particulars of the number of class and section to which the man belonged, the regiment in which he served previous to transfer to the Reserve, the date of re-entry into the service, and the date of his being relegated to the Reserve, or held to Army Service, will be made to the pension-pay district from which the man deserted, or, if that is unknown, to the Adjutant-General of the Forces.

When a man of the Army Reserve is sentenced to imprisonment, and at the expiration of the sentence is to be relegated to the Reserve, the Commanding Officer will inform the Governor of the prison to which he is committed of the regiment in which he served previous to transfer to the Reserve, and the pension district from which he deserted.

(4.) If the soldier belonged to the Militia, and the officer commanding the Militia Regiment has furnished the prescribed release (see para. 63 of this section), the officer commanding the man's present corps will dispose of the case by ordering the soldier to repay the amount prescribed by Royal Warrant.

(5.) If the soldier has been previously discharged as a bad character, and comes under the conditions of Section 32 of the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879, the General Officer commanding will deal with the case by trial. The offences described in this section of the Act being made punishable with penal servitude, it is desirable that men thus re-entering the Army should be treated with the utmost rigour, unless by good conduct subsequent to their last enlistment they have merited a more lenient treatment.

* This Form has been revised. Commanding Officers will be furnished with a supply of the amended Forms.

General Officers commanding will therefore carefully consider the expediency of trying offenders of this description by General Court-Martial, and, in the event of their not being sentenced to be discharged with ignominy, of carrying out their discharge summarily.

- (6.) If the soldier has improperly re-entered the Army under any conditions other than those mentioned in 51, General Officers commanding will direct the disposal of the case on its merits under Section 31 or Section 95 of the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879. Where the soldier's discharge is to be effected in consequence of his offence, the case should, as a general rule, be dealt with by the civil power instead of by court-martial, if such a course can conveniently be adopted without expense to the public.

73c. When a soldier is held to serve in his present corps, he will serve on his last attestation. If he is relegated to his former corps he will, as a general rule, serve on his former attestation; but if it is thought desirable that he should be held to the conditions of his last attestation, the case should be referred to head-quarters, with a view to his being transferred from his present corps to his former corps.

73d. As a general rule, a soldier who has fraudulently enlisted in any regiment will be tried in that regiment, and arraigned as belonging thereto, and the necessary evidence will be obtained from his former corps.

73e. When it is decided that such soldier shall be relegated to his former corps after punishment, the officer commanding the regiment in which he is serving will forward his transfer documents, and communicate the result of the trial and all necessary particulars as to place of confinement and expiration of imprisonment to the officer commanding the former corps, who will arrange for the due removal of the man from prison.

The transfer to the former corps will take effect from the date of the expiration of imprisonment.

G.O. 88.—Equipment.

I. With reference to the revised instructions for fitting the valise equipment published with General Order 62 of 1878, the valise will always be packed according to method B laid down on page 3 of those instructions, and the practice of rolling the towel, so as to form a ridge along the inside at the top of the kit will be discontinued.

II. Para. 13 of the instructions above mentioned will be amended accordingly.

G.O. 89.—Field Exercise.

The following addition will be made to Sec. I., Part II., Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry, 1877:—

After "command" add—

"Swords will be returned on the caution before moving into extended order, but will be drawn when required for signalling (Sec. 20, Part II., Pages 92 and 93), also when bayonets are fixed during the attack for 'the charge' (Sec. 43, Part III., Page 228)."

G.O. 90.—Field Sketching and Reconnaissance.

I. Instructions for a course of field sketching and reconnaissance of ground, for non-commissioned officers of Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry, have been approved, and will be issued to all concerned.

II. General Officers Commanding Districts will take steps to ensure the formation of classes in each battalion, regiment, and battery, for the purpose of carrying out the "Instructions." In making such arrangements, General Officers will be assisted by the Garrison Instructors of their districts, under whose general supervision the work will be carried out. It is, however, to be distinctly understood that the instruction is to be regimental, and that if, in any case, the personal assistance of the Garrison Instructor is required at first, such assistance can only be temporary.

III. The sketches and reports of the non-commissioned officers will, at the end of each course, be sent to the Garrison Instructor of the district, who will forward them to the General Officer Commanding with a report as to the merits of each class.

IV. A limited amount of instruments and materials will be supplied to Garrison Instructors, and issued by them to battalions, regiments, and batteries, under regulations which are detailed in Clause 187, Army Circulars, 1880.

G.O. 91.—Good-Conduct Medals.

The Non-commissioned Officers and Men named in the accompanying list (see Appendix), have been awarded silver medals for "Long Service and Good Conduct," under the provisions of Articles 1074 to 1085 of the Royal Warrant of the 1st May 1878 (Revised "Army Regulations," Vol. I.). The medals will be prepared and issued as soon as possible, and instructions regarding the issue of gratuities to the recipients of the decoration are published in Clause 169, Army Circulars 1880.

G.O. 92.—Militiamen Enlisting in Regular Forces.

The following will be substituted for Section 6, paragraph 63, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," which is hereby cancelled:—

63. When a militiaman is found to be serving in the Regular Forces, without having previously obtained a release from his militia engagements, and is retained for service in the Army, he is to be required to make good, as compensation for the loss occasioned by his offence, the amounts laid down in the Royal Warrant of 19th June 1880, Clause 170, Army Circulars, 1880.

When the man is tried by Court-Martial, the amount he is required to make good should be shown in evidence before the Court to enable them to include it in their sentence; and when trial is dispensed with, the authority by whose order trial is dispensed with will direct the infliction of the stoppages.

The Officer Commanding the Militia Regiment will furnish the Officer Commanding the Corps in which the man is serving with a duplicate of his militia attestation, and the following certificate:—

I hereby certify that Regimental No. _____ a Militia [Reserve] man, has not been released from his engagement to serve in the _____ He is liable to repay the sum of * as compensation for the loss occasioned by his enlistment into the Regular Forces. I have no objection to his being retained to serve in Her Majesty's Army. He was [not] subject to military law at the time of his enlistment into the Regular Forces.

Commanding
Militia.

In all cases in which the release from the Militia engagement is granted Commanding Officers are empowered to dispense with trial by Court-Martial.

G.O. 93.—Kit boxes.

The use of kit boxes in regiments serving at home is strictly forbidden, and, where the practice now exists, it must at once be discontinued.

G.O. 94.—Records of Soldiers' Services.

With reference to Section 80 (3) Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879, when a soldier is transferred to a corps in an arm or branch of the service different from that in which he was previously serving, and his service is altered to correspond with the general conditions of service in the arm or branch to which he is transferred, an entry to that effect will be made in his record of service on the Attestation and Register Sheet as under.

"Transferred to _____, on _____, and conditions of service altered to _____ years with the Colours, and _____ years with the Reserve."

G.O. 95.—Re-engagement.

Published by Authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

"The high character of this manual requires no critical comments to recommend it. The fact of its having reached its fourth edition may be taken as sufficient evidence of its worth. Should there be a naval officer without this work in his necessarily small library, we should say, look if you cannot give it the space of a less valuable book."—United Service Gazette.

"A volume—a perfect knowledge of which would render any man a most agreeable and instructive companion—a guide, philosopher, and friend. It is a 'Manual of Scientific Inquiry' by the best authors, in a most compendious form, well got out and illustrated. Ordinary people might be afraid to talk to a naval officer or a traveller in general who had such a book off by heart. He certainly would possess a great deal of most useful knowledge."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"The present is the fourth edition of this well-known work, and although the editor has not altered the general form of the book or the arrangement of the articles, he has by adequate revision provided that such of them as required it, through the additional knowledge gained in the last twelve years, be brought up to the present epoch. It is impossible to speak too highly of this work, which may be considered as one of the most useful scientific works now published."—Scientific Review.

"The idea which prompted this publication was an excellent one, and the result is calculated to benefit others besides officers in Her Majesty's Navy, for whose especial use it was intended. Useful instruction in general matters of science is here provided, and the present edition conveys this instruction through the light of the latest scientific discoveries."—Civil Service Gazette.

DENT'S CHRONOMETERS,
WATCHES, and CLOCKS have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various scientific persons:—

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL, (Sir G. B. AIRY,) in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August 1870) on the forty Chronometers entered for annual competition, says of M. F. DENT's
Chronometer—

"THIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL."

N.B.—The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1829 on the celebrated public trial, by order of The Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says:

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year 0'54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER,
M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburg, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition, in 1843, says:

"The DENT CHRONOMETERS have held FIRST RANK in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, THE MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.

"M. STRUVE."

.* By Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest

SIR WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun, says:—

"9, HYDE PARK STREET, W., 14th November 1861.

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1859 has
